THE CONCLUSION OF OUR MISSION YEAR

Our recent time in Zambia was a great blessing for us – and we were also able to be a small blessing ourselves. We were working in the ministries until the beginning of December, before traveling to Livingstone with Jessi and Anne (a Dutch missionary) for two weeks on December 8. The 12-hour bus journey was definitely a cultural adventure. Shortly before Christmas, we returned to Kabwe and celebrated our first Christmas away from our families – but with friends in faith: the Fischer family and Anna. At the beginning of January, we resumed our work, helping out at “Hope on the Streets for Children” (HSC) for the last two weeks, which was a really nice way to end the year. Even though the “Bethesda” school unfortunately only reopened shortly before our departure, we were able to fill our last few days with valuable encounters and farewells to people who had grown very dear to our hearts.

OUR EVERYDAY LIFE IN ZAMBIA

Umulungu ne milimo yesu

THE WEEK AND OUR SERVICES

Our week began on Monday morning with a joint devotional for the entire OM Zambia team – a wonderful time of worship and brief input before we really got started. Our work week began on Tuesday: In the morning, we went to “Bethesda”, where we spent time with children with various disabilities. While Lucca also helped there on Wednesday, Talea supported Makwati School with organizational tasks, such as sending information to donors and sponsors. On Thursday and Friday, we worked together at “Hope on the Streets for Children” (HSC): with devotions, math and sports lessons – and, of course, eating nshima together, which Talea often helped to prepare. In the afternoons, we were usually back at the base and on Fridays we occasionally helped Anna with the “Missionary Kids Meet Up” to give the missionaries' children a special time too.

THE WEEKEND AND THE CHURCH

We usually spent our weekends relaxing at the base – often playing board games with Anna and the Fischer family. We also had the opportunity to support “TeenStreet” twice, including a large event with around 400 young people right here at our base. The goal is to strengthen young people and their faith and to connect them with other churches.

Without our own car, it wasn't easy to get around, but the Fischers took us into town to shop every now and then. Fortunately, we were also able to go shopping on Sundays after church.

The church service was always a real highlight: it started early in the morning and the worship in particular, with singing, dancing, raised hands, and loud shouts, was full of joy and life. The sermons strengthened our faith – even if the pastor liked to announce “now I'm coming to the end” several times before it was actually over after more than an hour...

WATERFALLS, SAFARIS AND MUCH MORE

The 12-hour minibus ride was a pretty bumpy start – but we just saw it as a cultural experience. In Livingstone, Pia, a friend of Jessi's, joined us, and the five of us explored the city named after missionary and African traveler David Livingstone. Of course, we visited Victoria Falls and a museum about his life. The absolute highlight, however, was a three-day camping safari in Botswana, which we were able to experience with Jessi and Pia: seeing these God-created animals up close and spending time in nature was deeply impressive.

In the end, it was time to say goodbye to Jessi, who flew back to Germany with Pia, while we traveled back to Kabwe with a stopover in Lusaka.

Ukubwelela ku Germany

BACK IN GERMANY

On Tuesday, January 20, 2026, our flight took us from Zambia to Johannesburg. There, too, we were able to experience God's blessing in a very practical way: a missionary we had met earlier in Livingstone organized accommodation for us – and although our hosts were unable to host us at short notice, they still paid for us to stay at a beautiful lodge, without even knowing us. It was a real surprise and a strong sign that God's ways are sometimes simply unfathomable! This gave us time to explore Johannesburg and visit the impressive Apartheid Museum. On Thursday, January 22, 2026, we finally flew back to Munich, where we were warmly welcomed by our families.

And what happens now?

First, we will live with Lucca's parents until we find something of our own in Stuttgart – yes, you read that right: Stuttgart! Lucca will start Bible school at the Gospel Forum there in the fall, and Talea is already looking for a job. So we expect to live in Stuttgart for the next 2.5 years.

The best part is that Jessi also lives and works there, so a reunion is guaranteed.
