

„Praise the Lord, my soul,
and forget not all his benefits“

Psalm 103:2

January 2023

Dear friends

Many greetings from Albania! Until now, we had a mild winter and only snow on the mountains.

Over new year I could visit my sister and stay with her for a week. This was a blessing.

Back in Albania, there were still many Christmas cards and letters to translate. In November, I had visited friends who sponsor three children in the same family. They donated also some money to fix the floor in one room of the house where the family lives. We had bought the material and the father did the practical work within a week. The family is very glad to able to use this room now.

I have been able to do home visits in Katjel. We also went with the team to Upper Mokra to start with updates. With an extra donation from the UK, we could bless some people in need with extra food. Twice a week I am in Proptisht, where we have church service every week.

I continue with the guitar lessons and also keep contact with the widows who come regularly to the meetings. We received from sponsors in Spain items like aprons, shopping bags, scarves, children's clothes etc. and could bless many people in the villages.

Thank you very much for all your prayers and your faithful financial support.

May God bless you!

Christiane
