and forget not all his benefits“

Psalm 103:2

February 2023

Dear friends

Many greetings from Albania!

The last weeks were flying by with many activities. We started again with weekly Bible study meetings in our three programs in Upper Mokra. We were also able to distribute clothes for the people which were donated by churches in Germany. This is a big help and a blessing for the people who live in the villages. Once in 6 weeks, the children and widows in our programs get a food parcel. The whole family benefits from these food parcels, and the meals can be cooked at home.

Arm prosthesis

We could help a church member from our church in Pogradec to get an arm prosthesis, so he can use this right arm. He is very grateful for this. I keep contact with the widows when I meet them in the church or in the Bible studies, and I did also some home visits. The ladies like to talk and share from their lives. The people in the villages help each other and look after the older neighbours. In the office, I am busy with translating updates and letters, to keep in this way the contact with the sponsors of the widows.
