and forget not all his benefits“

Psalm 103:2

July 2023

Dear friends

Many greetings from Albania!

The last weeks we had several summer camps in our programs. A visiting group from the USA did a one week summer camp in our church in Pogradec and many children and young people took part. We continue to go to Upper Mokra for the weekly Bible study meetings, and we could give out the food parcels in Trebinje. The villagers are very grateful for any extra food they receive. In Homezh, we could bless a person in need with much needed bread which his sponsor had provided. In Proptisht, the young people come to the guitar class. They have now vacation from school, but they didn't miss the opportunity to come and practice. Some of them come during the week and practice for themselves. This month we had also a family from Germany visiting the child they have been sponsoring for many years. They stayed a couple of days to see the program where the child is part of and to visit the family at home. They had brought a load of new tooth brushes which could be given to the children in the children's meetings. I am involved in the ongoing work in the office with translations. In the ladies meeting in Pogradec I am leading worship.

Thank you very much for all your prayers and your faithful financial support.

God bless you!

Christiane
