and forget not all his benefits“

Psalm 103:2

September 2023

Dear friends

Many greetings from Albania! In August, I was in Germany for a couple of weeks. I visited my family and spent time with my sister. We could attend together a Christian Conference for a couple of days, and this was a real blessing for us. In Düsseldorf, I visited my home church. We had a missions Sunday, and I was able to present the work of LWAAC in Albania. A widow and a child got sponsored. I could also present the work in another church. Over the weeks, I took part in several Bible study and prayer meetings, and I visited friends and sponsors. I was also part of a Living Water Germany meeting in Braunschweig.

Here in Albania, I continue with the office work, translating letters and updates for German sponsors and letters from the widows to their sponsors. This month, the children in our sponsorship programs could choose whether they wanted a school bag or a food parcel. This week, we distributed school bags and food parcels in our program in Proptisht. We had church service and a time of fellowship, and then we had the distribution. Thank you for making it possible for us to bless the children and widows.

Food for the family

Thank you very much for all your prayers and your faithful financial support.

God bless you!

Christiane
