

„Praise the Lord, my soul,
and forget not all his benefits“

Psalm 103:2

October 2023

Dear friends

The last weeks have been really busy, with visitors and all the ongoing activities. The weather is still nice and warm during the day. We went to Upper Mokra, and in Trebinje we distributed the food boxes for those who are part of the program. We could bless the people also with boxes with clothes. It is good to keep the contact with the widows. Some of them live by themselves and don't have any family around or don't have family at all. It is important to take time and listen to them. Like always, we could give some extra food to people who are not yet registered in the program, like a blind man who came recently to our church in Proptisht. This is possible through an extra donation from people in the UK and it is a real blessing. Some sponsors sent hand made blankets, scarves and other items, which we give to the women, especially to widows. They are so grateful.

Every week is church in Proptisht, and the young people who are in the worship team are making progress. They are eager to learn more new songs. We started already to practice some Christmas songs, because the weeks will be flying by. I continue with the office work, translating updates and letters, and also with leading worship in the ladies meeting in Pogradec. I did also some home visits in Katjel.
