Extra food

Dear friends

The last weeks have been really busy. In Proptisht, we continued practicing Christmas songs with the children and young people who attend the guitar class. They will sing the songs when they have their Christmas program. We got many gifts for the ladies, like self made bags, scarves, aprons. These gifts are always appreciated and show the women in the villages that people care for them. In Pogradec, the ladies who attend our church gather for weekly ladies meetings. I started with a guitar class in Kotodesh so that the children will be able to play some of the worship songs. In the guitar class in Proptisht, the young people are practicing the Christmas songs. Earlier in November, I went to Germany, visiting family and especially my sister. We had the annual Living Water Germany meeting in Braunschweig. I could also attend the homecoming from my missions organization, Globe Mission in Germany. This was an encouraging time. I want to thank you very much for all your prayers and your faithful financial support.

I wish you a blessed Christmas time.

Christiane
