Dear friends

In the middle of March, I went to Germany. Since then, I have been working online, translating letters for the German sponsors and doing other translations and proof reading. I was also able to travel and visit friends. Some of them support also children or a widow in Albania. I have been several times in my home church in Duesseldorf and I attended also various prayer meetings and a Bible study. Sometimes I was given spontaneously the opportunity to share about the work of LWAAC in Albania.

I took this in March and
I think it's just a great picture!

A guitar from a sponsor

A sponsor wanted to give a guitar to his sponsored child in Albania. I could give the guitar to somebody who was travelling to Albania, and the guitar was delivered to the team, who brought it to Proptisht, right on the day when they had church.

Worship in Proptisht (with the new guitar)

Last weekend, we had our annual Living Water Germany meeting in Braunschweig. I was able to attend the meeting online. On Sunday, we could present as team the work of LWAAC in the church service in Braunschweig.

In Duesseldorf

I was planning to return to Albania this month but have had a cancer diagnosis of my own (breast cancer). I will have treatment, and I will continue to work online, as much as my strength allows. Later I will have surgery. Please pray for the right treatment, and of course for God's healing.

Thank you very much for all your prayers and your faithful financial support.

God bless you!
